As an owner or operating of a business, you balance risk and reward. I provide the strategic guidance you need to move forward while ensuring your interests are protected, while balancing the risks, rewards, and practical aspects of your business.

My practice spans a wide range of business and real estate matters, including advising as to the appropriate choice of entity for your needs, drafting internal governance documents, negotiating contracts, and advising as you purchase or sell a business.

I am able to think through complex structures and find creative solutions to find a path forward and achieve your goals.

My approach is hands-on and detail-oriented, focusing on uncovering key risks and opportunities to ensure each transaction runs smoothly, timely, and aligns with your goals.

Clients value my approachable demeanor and strong advocacy. I prioritize clear and efficient communication—favoring conversations that provide depth and understanding over lengthy email chains—to ensure we address every detail, and nothing gets lost in translation.
