Helping clients secure their futures and navigate life's complexities is at the core of my practice as an estate, trust, and probate attorney. I approach each case with empathy, diligence, and precision, building trusted relationships to understand my clients' unique needs and goals. Together, we craft comprehensive plans that preserve legacies, simplify administration, and bring clarity to challenging situations.

My practice includes estate planning with wills, trusts, powers of attorney, and health care directives; probate and trust administration; elder law and special needs planning; charitable giving; business succession; and tax strategies. By combining meticulous research with thoughtful planning, I simplify complex legal matters into clear, actionable steps that give clients confidence in their decisions.

Serving as an Operations Officer and Navigator in the Navy instilled in me a sense of discipline, strategic thinking, and a deep commitment to preparation—qualities I bring to my legal practice every day. These experiences shaped my mission-focused approach and dedication to delivering practical, client-centered solutions. I'm here to guide you with clarity and purpose, helping you achieve peace of mind and confidence in your future.
