"Clients facing pivotal life changes encounter a myriad of challenges and uncertainties, and my role is to offer clarity and insight. I am here to help ensure they feel supported and understood every step of the way."

ABOUT ME

I aim to be a beacon of stability and reassurance. By actively listening, empathetically engaging, and carefully preparing documents, I endeavor to bring clarity, strength, and direction to their journey, ensuring they feel heard, supported, and confident every step of the way.

I strive to make the process of legal navigation as seamless and painless as possible, by undertaking the intricate back-end work and by assisting to provide clear answers to tough questions. My goal is to leverage my extensive professional experience to help our attorneys deliver fair, accurate, and equitable outcomes for our clients.

As a part of Henson Efron's well-recognized family law group, I am eager to demonstrate my competencies in this sophisticated legal network. My background in client service and paralegal training equips me to handle complex legal challenges effectively. My strengths lie in my reliability, dedication, and passion for research and investigation. I am always ready to tackle even the most challenging matters. My work includes:

- draft pleadings for all levels and types of family cases (dissolutions, custody matters, child support matters, orders for protection, harassment/restraining orders, 3rd party custody matters; adoptions, CHIPs cases)
- draft informal and formal discovery requests and responses; review discovery responses and draft deficiency letters
- calculate, prepare, and analyze budgets, income, spousal maintenance, and child support
- prepare property division spreadsheets and analysis
- assist with social evaluations or financial valuations
- prepare for mediations, settlement conferences, and trial
- draft pre-trial and post-trial submissions and post-decree pleadings
