ABOUT ME

Clients rely on and trust me for highly skilled, professional, and compassionate counsel. I bring vast experience in the areas of:

- estate planning (wills, trusts, powers of attorney, and health care directives)
- probate and trust administration
- charitable gift planning
- business succession planning
- guardianship, conservatorships, and elder law planning
- special needs and supplemental need trust planning

I am sincerely interested in people and hearing their stories. As an attentive listener and effective communicator, I gain a deeper understanding to help solve my clients' problems and provide comprehensive service.

I don't like surprises and neither do my clients, so I diligently explain the process and approximate timing and costs, outline tasks to be accomplished, and set expectations. I offer my clients an opportunity to choose what functions they would like to handle, which can help manage costs.
